REPORTS OF BOARDS

BIBLE BOARD

Brethren:

It is with devout gratitude to God that we report the marvelous publication and distribution of the Holy Scriptures by the American Bible Society within the last twelve months. The Bible continues to be the oldest and the newest Book. In the agonies of War and in the present great problems of peace, it has for us as the only book its essential messages of comfort and guidance. Its truths attested to by the blood of Christ and vitalized by the Holy Ghost re-creates the individual and the nation. Our race would perish without the Bible, but God speaks to us through its pages and there is light and life. God's Word is the essential associate of preacher and missionary and to all life-builders in Church and State.

We are pleased that the "people called Methodists" in the United States largely contributed to the support of the American Bible Society, though in the next few years of world rebuilding the gifts for this benevolent cause should be thribbled. During the war and for war needs the American Bible Society distributed 4,500,000 volumes of Holy Scriptures; and more than 1,000,000 Testaments bound in khaki were given to American sailors and soldiers. The Holy Bible did much in keeping up the morale of our sailors and soldiers and in our winning the war. Ninety-nine per cent of our boys that fell in battle were found with a New Testament grasped in their hands or placed in their pockets over the heart; and the testimony of comfort to the little Book in khaki by our wounded and dying boys touched the heart of all who love God. The total distribution of Scriptures the past year by the American Bible Society was a little more than 6,000,000 copies; and the total annual circulation through all agencies is more than 32,000,000 copies.

The Southwestern agency, including our State and Conference, and employing eight colporteurs, for work among foreign people, report a circulation this year of 83,973 volumes of Scriptures. We commend the work of Rev. J. J. Morgan, who manages this agency. Our own agent, Rev. D. H. Colquette, has wrought well in Bible distribution among us and we highly recommend his work. A disastrous fire has recently destroyed our Bible depository in Little Rock, the loss being more than $3,000 worth of Bibles and equipment. The American Bible Society, headquarters in New York, on account of depleted treasury on account of war work asks if our two Conferences in Arkansas can raise funds to re-establish our Little Rock depository. In the face of urgent need your committee offers the following resolutions:

First, that the second Sabbath in April 1920, be observed as Bible day for our Conference and each pastor with appropriate service, take an offering to re-establish our Little Rock Depository.

Brother Colquette will furnish our pastors with suitable literature for that day.

Second, because of the vast demands on the American Bible Society for the Word of God in rebuilding the war-devastated world in His name we emphasize this need and endeavor to get life members for the American Bible Society and otherwise get freewill offerings for this worthy cause.

Third, that each pastor make his home a small depository of the American Bible Society or otherwise arrange for such depositories in his pastoral charge. The people can thus have the chance of getting God's Word at cost of publication. We thus bring an unspeakable blessing to our people with but little trouble and no expense to ourselves. Brother Colquette will furnish the Bibles and the people will soon make a road to such depositories.

Signed: R. A. M'CLINTOCK, Chairman; J. F. TAYLOR, Secretary; C. F. MESSER, J. J. MELLARD, J. R. RUSHING, H. E. VAN CAMP.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE.

To the Little Rock Conference, 1919.

Dear Brethren:

Your Board of Christian Literature submits the following report: We have had before us communications from the Christian Advocate and the Arkansas Methodist. Dr. A. C. Miller also appeared before us and stated his plans and purposes concerning some things of importance with reference to the Conference organ.

We understand that many of our pastors do not take the Christian Advocate. We can not see how any pastor can think he can meet his obligation to himself or to his people and not read the general organ of his church. In this publication is to be found much that every pastor must know that he may be fully prepared for his work, and to rightly inform his people who do not take the Advocate. Surely this paper should go into every pastor's home. It should also be read by every official and leader in our Church. We urge every pastor to do what he can to increase the circulation of our general organ, and the more do we urge this from the fact that we are convinced that many of our preachers have failed to make any definite effort to secure subscriptions to the Advocate.

Our slogan,—“The Arkansas Methodist in every home.”

We wish a much larger circulation for the Arkansas Methodist, first, because of its splendid timely editorials; and the general fund of information it contains.

Secondly,—We have before us some very important movements, which need large publicity, and which the Arkansas Methodist can give. There is the Evangelistic Movement, the Educational Campaign, and our great Missionary interests. Each of these movements needs the help of the Methodist. Every Methodist home needs to be informed on these movements.

We believe it is possible to put the Arkansas Methodist into every Methodist home and ask that pastors and Official Boards make an effort to do so. We feel that the last General Conference made this our duty, as may be seen by reference to the Discipline. We would pledge the fullest co-operation of the Conference in carrying out a definite plan. We would set apart the months of January, February, and March as Arkansas Methodist Campaign months, that our slogan, "The Arkansas Methodist in every Methodist home" may be realized.

We recommend an assessment upon the Conference for the Arkansas Methodist, of $1250.00.

We also recommend the re-election of the commissioners, Rev. James Thomas, Rev. T. D. Scott, and Hon. Geo. Thornburgh. Also the re-appointment of Dr. A. C. Miller as editor.

We wish to call attention to the important fact that our people should do much reading, and of the right sort. We recommend the publications of our Publishing House and would especially emphasize that our people read The Quarterly Review and The Missionary Voice. These present to us the great current facts of our times, many of which are soon to become history.

We recommend that special effort be made to increase the subscriptions to the Missionary Voice, and to increase the buying of books from our Publishing House.

J. A. BIGGS,
T. P. CLARK.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

To the Bishop and members of the Little Rock Annual Conference.
Dear Brethren:

The year just closed has been the most successful in Church Extension work the Board has ever had in its history. The assessment for the Conference for the year 1920 is $7,590.00, which is the same as last year.

On the foregoing assessment we rejoice to report that we collected $5,967.82, which is an increase over last year of $272.83.

We are glad to note that our people are reading and informing themselves more thoroughly every year regarding our vital and important work of Church Extension and are responding more liberally each year.

We were delighted to have with us Dr. H. A. Boaz, our efficient Church Extension Secretary, who assisted us greatly by his wise counsel and brotherly suggestions.

Rev. R. S. Stout, of the C. M. E. Church was before our Board and took a collection in the congregation to assist his work, which amounted to $57.00.

We had before us ten applications to aid churches and parsonages, amounting to $2,970.00 and we are happy to be able to report that on the above we granted $2,600.00.

We recommend that our preachers keep a vigilant outlook for any one who might be induced to make gifts to our Loan Fund, or memorials to perpetuate the memory of their loved ones.

Our present Loan Fund, which is only $640.00, is pitifully small.

We are planning to have a representative at each District Conference during the coming year, and we request that each Presiding Elder grant an hour to this important work in his District Conference.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Your Board of Education has given careful consideration to the reports and requests referred to us, from the General Board of Education, from the Department of Ministerial Supply and Training, from Southern Methodist University, and from our three Colleges. All our institutions of learning are full to overflowing. They are embarrassed by their very success. The increased cost of operating them without a corresponding increase in income is creating for them an exceedingly perplexing problem.

Never in her history has the Church had greater educational opportunities than now. By every token God is calling His Church to gird herself for the largest and finest educational task she has ever done, for she cannot play her God-given part in the reconstruction of a broken and suffering world without greatly strengthening her educational institutions. The educational opportunities lying before us cannot be met without spending millions upon our schools, colleges, and universities.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

First. That this Conference hereby pledges its hearty support of, and earnest cooperation with the Church-wide, united educational campaign which is now being organized under the direction of the General Board of Education and which will begin in May 1920.

Second. That our preachers give special attention during the year to the matter of laying upon the hearts and minds of the young men and women of the Church the obligation to preach the Gospel and to engage in Missionary work and other forms of Christian service; and that the authorities of our Colleges see to it that Christian service as a life calling is clearly and forcefully presented to their students.

Third. That in recognition of the fact that one of the great tasks of the Church is the supply and equipment of her ministry, we hereby declare it to be the policy of this Conference to stand unswervingly for an adequately equipped as well as a thoroughly consecrated ministry. In carrying out this policy, we propose to be governed, where at all practicable, by the following rules:

1. To admit on trial only those candidates who present the four-year High School course required by the General Conference.

2. To give financial assistance to candidates for admission on trial sufficient to enable them to secure the required training.

3. To encourage by financial assistance and otherwise young ministers to secure adequate college and theological training before entering the active ministry.

4. To see to it that candidates educated for the ministry enter their pastoral duties immediately after the completion of their education.

5. To discontinue or to locate any undergraduate who shall remain in the same class more than two successive years beginning with the Conference of 1919.

6. To assist undergraduates to pay the fee required by the correspondence school where necessary.

Fourth. That the following be elected Trustees of Henderson-Brown College: R. B. F. Key, H. C. Couch, T. D. Scott, J. A. Sage, and A. Turrentine; and that J. L. Cannon be elected to take the place of M. N. Waldrip, transferred.

Fifth. That Rev. T. D. Scott be elected a Trustee of Hendrix College to succeed himself for the term ending in 1925.

Sixth. That Dr. P. C. Fletcher and Mr. J. I. Porter be elected Trustees of Calloway College to succeed themselves.

Seventh. That Rev. J. L. Cannon be elected a Trustee of Southern Methodist University to succeed himself.

Eighth. That Roy Farr be appointed a student in Emory University and R. E. Fawcett and W. C. Martin, students in the Southern Methodist University, and W. J. Clark and H. R. Nabors to Hendrix College.

Ninth. That S. R. Twitty be appointed Conference Secretary of Education and elected to represent the Conference Board of Education in the Methodist Educational Association.

Tenth. That the educational forces of the Church are hereby pledged to hearty cooperation with the Centenary Movement in carrying out its Evangelistic program for the Conference.

Eleventh. That the plan to secure funds from our people with which to aid in erecting an Administration Building at a cost of $60,000 for Arkansas-Haygood Industrial Memorial College located at Pine Bluff is hereby endorsed and Dr. C. C. Neal who has the matter in charge is hereby commended to our preachers and people.

Twelfth. That the following assessments for education be made for the ensuing year—

Henderson-Brown College	$ 4,000.00
Galloway College	4,000.00
Hendrix College	4,000.00
Ministerial Education	1,200.00
Summer School of Theology	1,000.00
Incidental Expenses	200.00

Total$14,400.00

Thirteenth. That $500.00 be appropriated each to Wesley J. Clark, and H. R. Nabors, and that we ask the General Board to supplement this amount by a loan if necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

STONEWALL ANDERSON, President.
S. R. TWITTY, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

We, your Epworth League Board, are glad to see the progress the League is making. We are gratified at seeing the perfect harmony that exists between the Board and the League Conference. We heartily endorse the policy of the Conference.

The Leagues of the Little Rock Conference have pledged themselves to raise the $2,598.00 Centenary quota, also to raise $1,000.00 for Mission work within the bounds of our own Conference. $800.00 of this we are planning to use at Mt. Ida. $250.00 at Holly Springs and Sardis. We urge that the District work be given large attention, and we want to stress the organization of Junior and Intermediate Leagues this year.

And above everything else we pray that life service and the Missionary call be stressed in all our Leagues.

We have voted to send our Junior and Intermediate Superintendent to the joint meeting of the presidents this year.

We have asked the Commission on Finance for an appropriation of $1,250.00 to carry on our work.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

To the Bishop and members of the Little Rock Conference,
Dear Brethren:

We rejoice in the goodness of God and of His special grace during the past year. The cause of Missions has gone forward beyond the faith of the Church and we have done even more than we had hoped. The program of the Church was carried on by men of large vision who have inspired us to do great things. Our people have been called to pray and devote themselves and their possessions to God. They have been organized for a great task. Right well have they wrought for the Master, but our task has only begun. All of our people have not joined the League of Intercession, nor have they all become stewards of time and property. We have subscribed to our Centenary fund $945,547.00, and while our collections have been good, yet they are far behind what we had hoped for. We recommend, therefore, that all our pastors and Church leaders continue with great earnestness:

First Our League of Intercession and family altars.

Second. That we preach on tithing and organize our people into tithing bands until all our people come to the Scriptural standard of paying.

Third. That we all enter most heartily into the evangelistic Campaign now proposed. Let all of our churches organize by having Minute-men in every congregation, and utilizing every part of the machinery of the Church to bring the lost to Christ.

Fourth. That the following be appointed as Evangelistic Committee:

J. D. Hammons, Paul C. Rorie, Frank Musser, E. R. Steel, J. H. Cummins.

Ex-officio members: S. T. Poe, E. D. Irvine, C. N. Baker, T. L. Bond, R. W. McKay.

REPORT OF ORPHANAGE BOARD.

Your Committee on the Orphanage has duly considered the report of the Board of Trustees, which is as follows:
To the Little Rock Conference:

The work of the Orphanage the past year was one of the best in its history, and was such as to make us grateful that we have such an Institution. There was less sickness during the year than most any year during the existence of the Home.

At the close of last year, September 30, 1918, we had thirty-four children in the Home. We received eighteen children during the year and placed twenty-five, leaving in the Home on September 30, 1919, twenty-six. During the existence of the Home we have placed three hundred fifty-six children. We rejected forty applications for children, indicating the care taken by the Board in placing children. We did not refuse admission to any child coming within our rules.

Special gifts in money were received by Brother Thornburgh to the amount of $743.84 which makes $40,284.00 collected and invested in the property besides the amounts contributed by the Conferences.

The receipts from the Conferences were again short and wholly insufficient to support the Institution. Of the $4,000 assumed by it, the North Arkansas Conference paid only $2,122.00, leaving unpaid $1878, or nearly one-half. The Little Rock Conference did but little better, paying $2,556, leaving $1,444, or a deficit of more than thirty-five percent. The total paid by the two Conferences was $4678 while the expenses were $6,420. We received $648 for board of certain children and borrowed the balance.

We sincerely hope that the collections now coming in on an assessment of ten thousand dollars will make a better showing. We heartily approve the collections for the French Orphans and every other worthy object but we must not in the multitude of these calls forget or neglect our own orphans.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

To The Bishop and Members of The Little Rock Conference,
Dear Brethren:

Your Sunday School Board is profoundly grateful to Almighty God for His blessings upon our work. We have had a good year. All the active Sunday Schools in our Conference pledged their full quota for the Centenary. Our Conference statistics will show more than twice as much paid for Missions in the Sunday School as in previous years.

We have put special stress on Teacher Training this year with good results and expect to increase our efforts along this line another year. Our plans for next year include four City Training Schools, two College Training Schools, and at least one District Training School in each Presiding Elder's District.

We pledge our support to the Centenary Commission in helping to carry out the Standard Plan for the Centenary Conservation, in the Sunday School.

We pledge ourselves to enter heartily into the Evangelistic Campaign of the coming year.

In order that our work may have a more careful supervision, we have made plans for organizing each Presiding Elder's District according to the plan of the General Sunday School Board and have made provision for financing same.

We tender our thanks to Dr. A. C. Millar for the large space given the Sunday School Department in the Arkansas Methodist and respectfully request that this Department be continued as it has been during the past year. As an indication of our appreciation, we have directed our Field Secretary to take steps at once looking to putting the Methodist in every Sunday School Superintendent's home in the Conference.

The Prescott District, Rev. J. A. Henderson, Presiding Elder, again leads the Conference in the percent of Sunday Schools observing Sunday School Day. Every Sunday School in the District reported an offering. Monorable mention is made of the Little Rock District, Dr. James Thomas, Presiding Elder. Every charge in this District reported an offering.

The Banner Sunday School Day charges for Districts are as follows:

Arkadelphia District Hot Springs Ct. Rev. J. R. Dickerson, P. C.	$40.00
Camden District, Camden, Rev. W. C. Hilliard, P. C.	55.00
Little Rock District, First Church, Dr. P. C. Fletcher, P. C.	150.00
Monticello District, Tillar Ct., Rev. J. H. Cummins, P. C.	96.00
Pine Bluff District, Lakeside, Rev. H. B. Trimble, P. C.	22.95
Prescott District, Hope, Dr. Alonzo Monk, P. C.	33.14
Texarkana District, Stamps, Rev. J. F. Simmons.	28.00

We have elected Mr. A. B. Simmons of Little Rock, Arkansas, Treasurer of the Board.

We have asked the Commission on Finance to continue our appropriation of $3,000.00 for the support of our work for the coming year.

We have re-elected Rev. Clem Baker, Field Secretary, and respectfully ask for his appointment.

C. E. HAYES, Chairman.

P. C. FLETCHER, Secretary.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

SOCIAL SERVICE

Our last general conference took an important step in regard to social service, in the formation of a commission on that subject. The Church has always stood for the right in social service but it has not always declared itself in a practical manner. If the Church is to carry out the principles laid down by Jesus Christ, it must manifest an active concern in the hungry, the sick, the imprisoned and the needy and make itself felt in the economic conditions in every day life. The present day unrest, the labor strikes and race riots occur because men do not understand each other and do not deal with each other by the golden rule. The startling question of Cain too often rings through commercial and civic life and even in social life "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" If the Church does not answer this question, it will remain unanswered. No Church can be a representative of Jesus Christ which does not accept, preach and practice the social doctrines laid down by him.

The Capitalist who takes to himself all the increased profits of his business can not claim to be right. Those who help to make the business prosper are entitled to share with him. The employee who is unfaithful to his duty and to his employer and is moved by a spirit of envy and lawlessness is as much to be condemned as the heartless employer. Each has his duty to the other and it must be done with a sense of brotherhood. The plans laid down by our Church for practical work in social and economic affairs are such as to give us tremendous influence in the righting of the wrongs that exist. The Church must take advantage of its opportunity to reconcile men to each other and to level unjust differences. Quoting one of the many great editorials by Dr. Millar in recent issues of the Arkansas Methodist "The Church as the exponent of the principles of Christ has an obligation here, not as some vainly argue to line up with labor, but to hold up standards and mediate between conflicting parties. Neither labor nor capital is absolutely right in these contests. The Church cannot identify itself with Capital, because it is often unjust and grasping; nor can the Church align itself with Labor because it is often narrow and intolerant. Union laborers hate 'Scabs' but that is not Christlike. It is the business of the Church to teach laborers to love even their enemies, and to instruct employers to owe no man anything except love. Congress and Legislatures should pass proper laws and executives and courts impartially execute laws, but the Church of Jesus Christ must love and teach men to love."

TEMPERANCE.

In temperance affairs wonderful progress has been made within a year. When this Conference met last year, the 18th Amendment was being submitted to the Legislatures of all the states. At that time only fifteen had acted favorably and this Committee expressed the belief that forty-one states would ratify the Amendment. We were not optimistic enough. Forty-five ratified, leaving only three and those three hardly worth mentioning. This Amendment for National Prohibition will go into effect Jan. 16th. Congress has made liberal provisions for its enforcement and to all appearances there will be little opposition to, or violation of, the Law.

There has been some confusion as to the War Time Prohibition. This law was enacted for and during the war and until our armies are demobilized. There has been a great effort on the part of the liquor people to have this law declared at an end, because, as they claim, the war is over. They want to get rid of the accumulated liquor and if they have only a few weeks in which to sell their product before the 16th of January, they will to that extent be happy. The President seems to favor giving them that opportunity but Congress is decidedly opposed to it. What the outcome will be, we can not foresee. The U. S. Supreme Court may decide it. At any rate the suspension of the law will last for only a short while, if at all, and in no event will it effect Arkansas.

In our own State the Anti-Saloon League has done much successful work, cooperating with the U. S. Revenue Department, the Department furnishing the men and the League furnishing the money to make the proof. Many old-time bootleggers and hardened criminals have been brought to justice, notably several in the last few weeks. The management of the League has been such as to keep it running in full force and pay a debt of more than $3,000.00 incurred by former officials. The League has now a small fund on hand and does not owe a dollar. The President of the League gave much attention to matters before the Legislature. He prepared the Amendment to the Bone Dry Bill, which became a law. He also prepared a bill prohibiting the sale of intoxicating medicated liquors and one to punish drunkenness and require the defendant to give the name of the person from whom he bought the liquor. These were both good bills but they failed in the House, the Senate favoring both. We recommend that our relation to the Anti-Saloon League be continued and that Geo. Thornburgh, A. C. Millar, J. H. Glass, W. M. Hayes and J. S. Utley be elected to represent this Conference on the State League Board.

WHAT REMAINS TO BE DONE?

Much for the glory of God and the good of humanity. The world stands at the threshold of a new era. Reconstruction is going on every where and the moral forces of this country must show to other countries the benefits of the prohibition of the liquor traffic. Already the trade of the world is international, travel and modern inventions have reduced the world to a neighborhood and the Christian Church holds all nations of the earth as its parish. No great problem which has to do with human welfare can be permanently solved by a single nation. The revelations of the recent war were conclusive on this point. A Democratic Government in the U. S. was not safe so long as there existed anywhere a powerful autocracy. As "No man liveth unto himself" so in this age "No nation liveth unto itself." If this Country is to be safe from the liquor traffic, neighboring countries must also be made free from it.

The work of the American Anti-Saloon League is now to be world wide. The building of the League required a quarter of a century of effort and millions of money. It has united into one common band, the religious people of all creeds; its value as a fighting organization has been fully demonstrated. It has machinery, the like of which in effectiveness has no equal outside of the Church. It holds the confidence of the moral and Christian forces of this Nation, hence it stands in a position of greater strength than ever before. This strong arm of righteousness will not be permitted to demobilize while there is a country on the face of the globe where the liquor traffic exists. The American League has already declared its purpose to destroy the liquor traffic throughout the world in the next 10 years. It has boldly laid its plan to raise one hundred Million dollars for that purpose. The magnitude of the effort challenges our admiration. The effect it will have upon our Missionary operations deeply concerns us as a Church.

Missionary work is seriously being threatened by the Liquor demon in mission fields. Jerusalem now has a brewery, and there is a distillery on Mount Lebanon. American Saloons have been opened in Damascus. No place is so sacred as to be exempt from invasion. The very ground hallowed by the foot prints of our blessed Master is being desecrated by the unholy traffic. Breweries and distilleries ousted from the United States are seeking locations in Mexico, China, Japan and elsewhere. If they succeed in fastening themselves on these countries, missionary work will become vastly more difficult. They must not be allowed to transfer their nefarious business to other and weaker countries. Every red blooded American Christian will stand four square in the declaration that they shall not do it. Brethren, the final conflict with John Barleycorn is on. It will be a fight to the finish. The loyal hosts of righteousness are going over the top. The man that doubts it is a slacker. Our battle song is:

Onward Christian Soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus,
Going on before.

GEO. THORNBURGH, Chairman.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

We, your Committee on Conference Relations, offer the following report:

For Superannuate Relation: C. O. Steel, S. A. Hill J. E. Caldwell, H. D. McKinnon, E. N. Watson, A. D. Jenkins, H. Townsend, E. Garrett, J. L. Johnson, R. J. Raiford, C. W. Drake, J. B. Williams, W. Supernumerary Relation: J. W. Berry, A. C. Graham, P. S. Herron.

B. F. SCOTT, President.
H. H. McGUYRE, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The journals of the seven districts were examined by the Committee and were found to be in good shape for the most part.

Presiding Elders should be careful to sign minutes and should instruct Secretaries to be painstaking about margins, and in writing out the number of the session instead of using the figures to designate it. The word "Reverend" should be omitted.

The Camden District has made a departure from the ordinary in using a loose leaf record with typewritten pages. It is to be commended. However in point of neatness and accuracy the record of the Monticello District is the model.

Respectfully submitted,

W. T. MENARD, Chairman.

MRS. BYRON HARWELL, Sec.

LAY ACTIVITIES.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:
Dear Fathers, Brothers and Sisters:

Your committee on Lay Activities would respectfully submit the following report:

We believe the greatest problems in all of the world's history are pressing upon the civilization of to-day for solution, and it must be through Christian America, that they are to be solved, if solved at all. As a preparation for the solution of these questions we believe that the Laymen's Missionary Movement was called into existence through the providence of God.

To the end that the Laymen may assist more effectively in the work of the church, we recommend that the ministers be relieved of all the work pertaining to the finances of the church that they may be permitted their entire time to study, prayer, and the ministry of the Word.

We suggest that the men of the church be admonished to get closer to God; that they re-establish the altars of the fathers and devote a portion of their time at least once a day in their families in reading God's Word and in family prayer.

While it may be important to use Bible helps and to read and study about the Bible, yet we desire to emphasize the importance of the study of the Bible itself. That our people be urged to read the fountain of all truth, the Bible, as the basis of all scriptural truth, and also urge upon our laymen the importance of putting in the home of every Methodist in the Little Rock Conference the Christian Advocate, The Arkansas Methodist, the Missionary Voice and the Methodist Discipline.

We believe that a religious service should be held in every church, every Sunday, that the people might assemble themselves together for worship at least once a week. And where such services can not be held by the preacher in charge or some other minister of the Gospel, that that duty be assigned to some laymen. Experience has taught that this will be a blessing to the congregation and more especially a blessing to the layman who is called to lead.

We believe that the proper means of raising the money for all religious purposes is through the payment of the tithe, and we are glad to say that many devout laymen, in recognition of the fact that God is our Heavenly father, and that they are His children, are paying to him one tenth of all that He gives to them, and so far as our knowledge extends, God has blessed temporally and spiritually, every man who has given this. Therefore, we recommend it.

We believe in the guiding hand of an over-ruling providence who directs the destinies of men and of nations, and that the church should get closer to God that he may guide us safely through these perilous times. We earnestly request the presiding elders to set aside a day at each district conference for the work of the laymen, and to be under the direction of the conference lay leader and the district lay leader.

We nominate Honorable Sam. T. Poe, of the City of Little Rock for re-election as our conference lay leader.

Respectfully submitted:

THE COMMITTEE.

RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING CHAPLAINS AND MINISTRY TO ARMY AND NAVY.

First: The Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, hereby records its great appreciation of the heroic and self sacrificing spirit of the Ministers of our Church in responding to the call of their Church and Country for service as Chaplains during the World War. Approximately 450 of our preachers offered themselves in this great service. Of these, 350 were approved; 19 withdrew or declined; 15 failed at the Chaplains Training School; 58 were at the Training School at the time of the signing of the Armistice and 114 were actually commissioned during the period of the War. Our Church furnished a few more than its full quota, while 100 approved candidates, besides 58 at Training School, were ready for service, showing that our Ministry was in the highest degree loyal and patriotic.

Second: We would also express appreciation of the great service rendered by Soldier pastors of our Church in the various camps of this Country and by our men who served the Y. M. C. A. in various capacities, both in the camps of this Country and Overseas.

Third: It is a matter of gratification to us as a Church that without exception our men as Chaplains, Soldier Pastors, and Y. M. C. A. Workers made record, second to none of those engaged in this great service. Whether in the Camps of this Country, or at the front, these men were busy to a degree seemingly beyond the power of man. They considered no sacrifice too great, and no service too hard to render in behalf of the men committed to their care. Our Chaplains at the front faced fire as heroically as the men themselves and no record of the valor and heroism of our men will be more glorious than that of the Chaplains, who stood by them all the way over and back again. Not one of our Chaplains has brought reproach, either upon the purity or virile manhood of the Ministry. As a result of service during the World War, the Chaplain has a new prestige and power in the United States Army.

Fourth: While one of our Chaplains, Wilbur S. Sewell, of Georgia, was killed in action, and one, Frank N. Rye, of Texas, died while in training, we rejoice that no other fatalities befell our men and that all have returned bringing as an added asset their experience in the Chaplaincy to regular lines of service.

Fifth: We heartily approve the forward step proposed by the War Department in the Department of Education and Recreation for training the men of the Army in education and morals, and we rejoice that in this program they are proposing a vital relationship for Chaplains in distinctively religious education.

Sixth: While rejoicing at the recognition the War and Navy Departments seem now disposed to give to the place and power of Chaplains in the Army and Navy, we would urge the necessity of such recognition being enacted as law by the Congress of the United States.

We note that a Bill prepared by the Committee on Army and Navy Chaplains of the Federal Council of Churches of America, embodying the real needs of the Chaplains Service in the United States Army, has been introduced into the Senate by Senator Capper, S. No. 3351, and in the House by Congressman Hull, H. R. No. 10,477. The main points of this bill are: First: a Chaplains Corps; Second, one Chaplain for each 1200 commissioned officers and enlisted men; Third, Chaplains to have rank, pay and allowances as follows: 5 per cent Colonel; 10 per cent Lieutenant Colonel; 15 per cent Captain; 25 per cent First Lieutenant; Fourth, the age limit of men eligible for Chaplaincy to be 35 years, with two years provisional service, except that any clergyman, who served during the World War in the Army of the United States, shall be eligible on his Army record.

We believe such legislation to be a proper recognition of the Chaplain's place in the United States Army and that only through such legislation can the Chaplains efficiently carry on their great Spiritual Ministry.

Seventh: We would urge that our Congressmen and Senators be informed of our approval of the Bill, above mentioned, now before the Senate and House of the United States; and that they be requested to support this legislation, either as introduced in the Bill or by including its provisions in the General Army Reorganization Bill.

Eighth: We would express the hope that our own Church, in common with all the Churches, shall not again lapse into the attitude of indifference to the religious welfare of the enlisted men and officers in the United States Army and Navy, as was too generally the case before the World War, but shall develop and maintain vital interest in all proper efforts for religious and moral training of the men of the Army and Navy and lend all possible assistance to the Chaplains in their ministry.

A. C. MILLAR.
S. R. TWITTY.

We offer the following for adoption:

That all Boards asking assessments of the Conference be required to present to the Commission on Finance not later than 3 p. m. the second day of the Conference an itemized statement of the objects for which the assessments are asked.

STONEWALL ANDERSON.

Resolved, That the Committee on Memoirs is hereby requested to include the memoirs of Rev. J. R. Sanders, and Rev. G. M. Yearwood, both of whom died during the session of our Conference one year ago, in the list of Memoirs to be read at the Memorial service of this Conference, and published in the Conference Journal.

J. A. SAGE.

W. W. CHRISTIE.

Resolved. That the Conference Treasurer be made the custodian of the Conference expense fund, and that he be authorized to pay all bills incurred in the preparation of the records of the Conference; the publication of the Conference Minutes, and all other expenses incurred in transacting the business of the Conference.

JAMES THOMAS.

RACE RELATIONS.

Believing that at this period in the history of our State there should be a more sympathetic relation between the white and negro races in our Conference we put ourselves on record as:

First: Being utterly opposed to the taking of human life without a fair trial.

Second: That we pledge ourselves to see that justice is done our colored brethren.

Third: That we recommend the holding of informal conferences between leading white and colored citizens in order to better understand the causes of race disturbances.

J. M. WORKMAN.

A. C. MILLAR.

P. C. FLETCHER.

Whereas, negotiations have been in progress between the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for some years, therefore, we very earnestly desire a speedy and satisfactory adjustment of the differences and a reorganization of these churches so there may be one united Methodism in these United States of America.

Therefore, be it resolved by the Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, that we express to our Commission, our full appreciation of their difficulties, and assure them of our utmost confidence in their judgment in all these delicate matters. We offer no advice, but pray that God shall guide the Church in the absolute union and reorganization of our Churches.

MEMORIAL.

We, the members of the Camden District Conference memorialize the Conference Board of Education and thru them the Little Rock Conference, to offer to the North Arkansas Conference a joint ownership in Henderson-Brown College.

We believe the time has come when this school should be the property of the whole state and that all legal steps be taken to make a transfer so that this College may sustain the same relation to the Church that Hendrix and Galloway Colleges now do.

MEMOIRS

M. B. CORRIGAN.

Michael Beresford Corrigan was born November 19, 1854, in Dublin, Ireland. His father was Sir Dominec Corrigan, a famous doctor and physician to the queen. His father being a physician, the son naturally inclined to medicine. He was given the best opportunities in the schools of his day. After completing the medical course in Queen's College, Dublin, he did post-graduate work in the College of Royal Surgeons in Edinburgh, one of the most important schools of its kind in that day.

After graduation, he entered the military service and was three years with the English army in India, several years in South Africa, attaining to the rank of Major in the medical corps at the age of thirty-one. In India, he had the distinction of serving with Lord Roberts and in Africa with Lord Kitchener, two of the most popular military idols of the empire. Following his service in Africa, he transferred to the navy and completed ten years as a naval surgeon; and, in that period, touched at nearly every important port in the world. Thus, to his unusual endowments were added unusual opportunities.

Resigning from the military service, Dr. Corrigan came to America, and into Arkansas in 1884. He was converted and yielded to the irresistible call to preach and entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the White River Conference. His first appointment was the Kentucky Valley Circuit, one of the predest in the conference, where he had to supplement his salary by the practice of medicine; but he had unusual abilities for his ministerial calling, as he had for his medical profession, and soon rose to the best pulpits in the conference.

In the fall of 1897 he was transferred to the Little Rock Conference and stationed at Camden where he served through the years 1898, 1899, 1900, and 1901. That fall the bishop transferred him to the La. Conference, but he could not go and remained at Camden in the practice of medicine. In the fall of 1902 he was appointed to Monticello where he served four years. He was next appointed to Central Avenue in Hot Springs where he remained through 1907 and 1908 and built the new church. Through 1909 and 1910 he was engaged in the effort to build a Methodist Hospital in Hot Springs, but did not succeed. He was given a nominal appointment as junior preacher at Monticello where he gave himself mainly to the practice of medicine. In 1912 he was appointed to Hope, but could not go on account of business entanglements. In 1913 he was granted the supernumerary relation which he sustained one year. In 1914 he was appointed to Hamburg, but was still embarrassed in a business way and could not accept the appointment. In 1915 he was appointed to the Collins circuit which he could serve from his home in Monticello, and there he was closing a quadrennium when he was transferred to the church triumphant on the morning of October 24, 1919.

Dr. Corrigan loved both his profession and his calling so much that he could never give up the one for the other; and his unusual abilities were proved by his success in both. He was a great physician, and he was a great preacher; but he was still greater as a man. He had lived in Monticello thirteen years, and the unanimous testimony there is that he was the greatest citizen who has ever lived in that community. He was rugged, strong, fearless, independent, stern, honest, conscientious, vigorous, energetic, tender, sympathetic, joyous, loving, brotherly—the better known the better loved. He loved his church and his brethren in the ministry. He was misunderstood only by those far from him. Those who were near him and understood could not be severe in criticism. He loved the people of Monticello, and they feel honored to be privileged to keep his dust.

Dr. Corrigan was thrice married. First, to Anna Harris, Gadsden, Tenn. To them were born Bryan and Robert, now living in Oklahoma City. Second, to Annie E. Ellis, of Memphis, Tenn. To them was born Ruth, also in Oklahoma City. Third, to Rosa Bell Leake of Junction City, Ark. To them was born Jean who is with her mother in the broken home.

To his dear ones his conference gives assurance of the high esteem in which Dr. Corrigan was held. We will cherish his memory and hold upon our hearts the wife and children he has left. He was the friend of God; may God and God's friends befriend his family.

MRS. P. T. COLBURN.

Parthenia Taize Colburn, daughter of John Wesley and Mary Anderson Tackett, born April 8, 1824, at Union, Monroe County, Va., died May 1, 1919, at San Dimas, Cal. Married Rev. Richard F. Colburn (of the St. Louis Conference), May 29, 1845.

Dr. Colburn was pastor of First Methodist Church of Little Rock the last two years of the Civil War.

She was the mother of six children, Rev. Samuel G. Colburn, Mrs. Kate Butler, Mrs. Alice Ware (first wife of Rev. Thos. H. Ware), Dr. John R. Colburn, Jesse M. and Anna. Mrs. Kate Butler and Jesse M. Colburn survive her, and out of her father's family of nine children, one sister, Mrs. Rebecca J. Colburn, now eighty-five years old, of Malvern, Arkansas. Her grand-father, Nimrod Tackett, a Frenchman came to this country with General Lafayette.

On her mother's side she was related to Chas. Carroll, signer of the Declaration of Independence. At the age of sixteen, moving from Virginia to Missouri, she accepted a position in Shawnee Mission School as teacher. She was married to Dr. Colburn by Rev. Jesse Green of blessed memory in Missouri Methodism. She was a member of Dr. C. C. Selecman's church of Los Angeles, Cal., for many years.

She has entered into the higher and purer life and has heard the Father's plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

REV. WILLIAM J. DAVIS.

Rev. William J. Davis was born in Oak Bower, Chambers County, Alabama, April 9, 1838. His parents moved to Union County, Ga., settling near Thomasson. In 1854 they moved to Arkansas and settled in Columbia County, seven miles north of Magnolia. In 1858 he went to Atlanta, Arkansas, and began to study medicine under Dr. Joel Turrentine. A great revival was held in Atlanta that summer, in which many were converted, many reclaimed, many revived. He was greatly revived and yielded to the call to preach. At the Fourth Quarterly Conference he was duly licensed and recommended for admission on trial to the traveling connection. He was received into the Ouachita Conference at Monticello in a few days and was sent as Junior Preacher to Princeton Circuit under Brother Kennedy and preached his first sermon at Mann's Schoolhouse. He was appointed Chaplain of a Confederate regiment in the fall of 1861, which position he held during the Civil War. In 1865 he was appointed to Cross Plains Circuit in the North Alabama Conference, where he did a few years' successful work as a traveling preacher and then was transferred back to his home Conference, now the Little Rock Conference. Here he labored until put on the retired list in 1900. Since then he has made his home at Antoine, Arkansas, where he died March 14, 1919. He was buried there March 15. The ministers taking part in the service were D. D. Warlick, J. J. Colson (the pastor), C. A. Kizziah and T. M. Armstrong. He leaves a wife and nine children. A large crowd of people in all walks of life were present, and by invitation scores of hands were raised attesting that he married certain ones or buried their dead, or came into their homes and ministered in time of need.

Brother Davis was a strong preacher, sound in doctrine, strong in faith, acceptable to the people. The church always received him gladly, and, better still, he went willingly to his appointments. He never complained. He was no place-seeker nor wire-puller. He was an ideal Methodist Preacher. He envied no man. He coveted no man's appointment. He left no debts unpaid. He was at church Sunday morning and was taken sick at church, came home and died Friday night. Among the last things he did while at himself he sang, "I Am Going Home," "The Home of the Soul," "How Blessed Are Souls that Wander There."

A father in Israel has fallen. A man of God has departed. A brother is absent.

MRS. CHARLES JEROME GREENE.

Eulla, daughter of Joseph C. and Pemelia (Fawlkes) Pettus was born in Okolona, Arkansas, May 31, 1866, and died at her home in Conway, Arkansas, July 7, 1919.

She was married to Rev. Charles Jerome Greene June 29, 1892. Three children were born to their union; Verna J., the eldest, was drowned when swimming in the Ouachita river, near Arkadelphia, when about sixteen years of age; Ruby, a lovely daughter, died of cancer when about ten years of age; Charles Jerome, Jr., eight years of age, is still living.

By birth and training Mrs. Greene was most richly endowed. Some of the best blood of the South flowed in her veins and she inherited many of the fine traits of character which belonged to her honored father and mother. She was educated in the Public Schools and in the University of Arkansas. Her course in the University was cut short by the death of her mother which made it necessary for her to assume the care of her father and the home. She continued, however, to be a careful and constant student of the best literature, both current and classic, and became an exceptionally well informed woman. She not only possessed a rich store of knowledge but, better still, a trained mind and a cultured soul.

She was a woman of strong convictions, lofty ideals and dauntless moral courage. She abhorred hypocrisy, conceit and impurity of every kind, but she had unmeasured respect for the aristocracy of character wherever found. She was so frank and outspoken in her views that people sometimes made the mistake of thinking she was unkind. But those who knew her better knew that her heart was full of kindness and that her charity was exceptionally broad. One of the last conscious acts of her life was to plead for a delinquent boy, and the erring and unfortunate were always the objects of her sympathetic regard. She has been known to rise from a sick bed and cook a meal for a hungry tramp and to the poor and the sick she was always as an angel of mercy.

Twenty-four of the twenty-seven years of her married life were spent as the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher, her husband having been for these years, as he is still, an honored member of the Little Rock Annual Conference. Nine of those years were spent in the pastorate and fifteen in Hendrix College. Both in the pastorate and in the work of the College she was always ready to make any sacrifice of her own pleasure or comfort in order to help her husband in his work.

She gave her life to the care and assistance of her husband, the nature and training of her children, the work of the church, and the relief of the sick and the needy. Endowed as she was with rare force of character and unusual intellectual ability she might easily have become a leader in any circle of social or religious life but she was joyously content to reign as a queen in her own home, receiving the homage of those whom she loved and the gratitude of those whose burdens of sorrow or misfortune she helped to lighten.

Very early in life she gave her heart to God and the church. In her mind this committal was final and complete. Her loyalty never wavered and her purposes never changed. As already indicated the shadows were deep and long about the closing years of her life. Added to the tragic death of her noble boy and the gradual fading out of the life of her almost angelic daughter were the years of intense bodily suffering in her own person. These sorrows and afflictions tested the fiber of her faith and it did not shrink. There were seasons when her mind was perplexed by the mysteries of Providence or the deeper passages of the Bible but her heart trusted in God always. In the midst of her greatest suffering she would find solace and rest as her husband read the word of God or sang the songs of Zion. Truly, she "Kept the faith" and we doubt not that she has received the "Crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to all those who love his appearing."

at Malvern, Arkansas, in December 1883. He was ordained deacon by Bishop C. B. Galloway December 12, 1886 at Hot Springs. He was ordained Elder by Bishop J. S. Key November 25, 1888, and served the following charges:

Maumelle Circuit 1884-1885; Murfreesboro Circuit, 1886; Texarkana Circuit 1887; Ouachita Circuit 1888-89; Hampton Circuit 1890; Murfreesboro Circuit 1891; Lewisville Circuit 1892; Goldman Circuit 1893-94; Sheridan Circuit 1895-96; White River Circuit 1897; Mt. Superannuated at Hot Springs in December 1918. He moved immediately to Arkadelphia to finish the education of the children. Through the kindness of Brother J. D. Dunn and the Hartsville people he was given the use of their parsonage near Arkadelphia. Here he fell asleep Saturday February 1, 1919.

He suffered intensely for four weeks, but was given much relief by the kindness of Dr. Arnold Ross.

The funeral services were conducted by the writer, in Hartsville Chapel assisted by Rev. W. R. Richardson, Rev. D. D. Warlick and Rev. J. D. Dunn. Fitting words were spoken by his brethren of the Conference and by Brother Tarver, a local preacher, and by Sister Holiman a saintly Christian woman whose children Brother Mills had baptized. His body was laid to rest in the Arkadelphia cemetery, where Rev. F. C. Cannon of Gurdon spoke tenderly of Brother Mills as a preacher and as a Christian man. Olin the only son was in Bordeaux, France, serving in the Aviation Corps of the U. S. A.

Brother Mills was a faithful Methodist preacher, who enjoyed his work and many were added to the church because of his faithful service.

Servant of God, well done,

Rest from thy loved employ.

The battle's fought, the victory's won.

Enter thy Masters joy.

MRS. W. C. HILLIARD.

Mrs. Johnnie (Blackwell) Hilliard was born July 9, 1863, near Double Wells in Jefferson County, Arkansas. She joined the Methodist Church in childhood. She was married to W. C. Hilliard December 17, 1885. In the fall of 1890 her husband joined the Little Rock Conference, and from that time until her death she shared the fortunes of an itinerant Methodist preacher. She was religious in her home, a regular and devout attendant at church, and supported by beautiful living the earnest ministry of her husband. She became the mother of eleven children. Economical, prudent, patient, loving, she was a gracious mother to her children and always made a good home for her family. Her parsonage home was never too full of her own to exclude the visitor; but guests were always welcomed and enjoyed her sincere hospitality.

Her life was unusually full of care, toil, suffering, and tragedy; but care did not corrode her soul, toil did not enslave her, suffering did not embitter her life, and tragedy did not drive her to despair. For nearly twenty years, in the privacy of her home, she carried in her arms and upon her mind and upon her heart an unresponsive charge that only the most intimate friends ever saw. All the reward of that unmeasured service, sacrifice, and suffering is reserved until in heaven he awakes to the meaning of mother and rises up to call her blessed.

If her life was full of tragedy her death was full of victory. For a year her health gradually declined. She saw the city from afar. She talked freely of her departure and was not afraid. She was permitted to give directions for her funeral and her burial, and to receive assurances that her wishes should be carried out. She had just left El Dorado after a residence of four years. The people there had loved her and sustained her through one of the tragedies of her life; and she wished to make her grave among them.

She had lived in Camden only a few weeks, and they were weeks of waiting and looking for release. On March 4, 1919, she left the parsonage for the country of many mansions. The funeral service was held in the church at El Dorado, and was attended by a large number of friends. We buried her body in the family lot alongside the grave of her Walter, whom we had laid away just four years before.

Resting from her labors, casting all her care upon Jesus, and set free from her broken body, she has passed from us, a triumph for the grace of God. In that soul patience had her perfect work. She let God make her. Sometimes there were outcries under the sharp strokes of the divine sculptor, but there was never any rebellion nor breaking. She believed that all the chastening of the Lord had in it the design of love. Few have suffered more than Sister Hilliard, and few have kept closer at Jesus' fee.

REV. A. M. ROBERTSON.

Alonzo M., son of George W. and Mary Frances Winfield Robertson, was born in Oxford, Miss., August 26, 1851. and died at his home in Texarkana, Ark., April 17, 1919. Brother Robertson was a lad only nine years of age when our country was plunged into civil war. The property of his people was largely reduced by that day of blood and fire, so that not even boyhood presented a very pleasing material prospect. But in spite of these uninviting conditions, young Robertson obtained the best school advantages, both in common school and in the university of his state, that the South had to offer at the time. He graduated from the University of Mississippi only a few years behind the classes of the late Bishop Chas. B. Galloway, and ex-Governor Shands. He then took graduate work in Theology in Vanderbilt University. This was in the days of Thomas O. Summers, J. J. Tigert and John C. Granberry—names that will ever live.

Brother Robertson literally grew up in the church, formally assuming its vows while yet a boy. It could not be otherwise with a Winfield for a mother. He was a credit to the Church.

In 1882 the name of A. M. Robertson appears on the Minutes of the Little Rock Annual Conference for the first time. For thirty-seven years he held his place, answering to roll-call each year, and passing the inspection both of character and administration. There was never a suspicion against him. His life was so clean, his motives so pure, and his character so unselfish, that he had long since become first in the hearts of all good people who knew him.

He was first appointed to Washington charge, and served one year. But at that time our country's one crying need was adequate schools. Competent teachers were few. A training school was established by the Methodist Church in Fingen, Ark. A. M. Robertson was the only man we had at that time who was specially prepared for such a task. So that, after one year in the pastorate, he was appointed president of our training school at Bingen, which place he filled for three years.

After this he taught for three years longer in a private school at Okolona, Ark. His work in the school room was as satisfactory as it was everywhere else. He gathered about him some of the brightest minds and choicest spirits of all the walks of life. Judge Carter, of Texarkana, and Doctor Hutchinson of St. Luke's Church, Oklahoma City, are examples of the many men who received their educational impulse from the life and teaching of A. M. Robertson.

But Brother Robertson had something better to teach than Mathematics, and the like. Moreover, the public schools of the state were rapidly obviating the need of privately owned training schools. So that after six years of eminently satisfactory work in the school rooms he was appointed to Dumas charge in the fall of 1889, and served one year. From thence he was moved to Lockesburg and served four years. Thence to Rison, and served one year; thence to Third Street, Hot Springs, three years; thence to Lewisville and Stamps, three years; thence to Wilmar, one year; thence to Washington again, and served one year; thence to Ashdown, two years; thence to DeValls' Bluff, two years, thence to Wilmar again, one year; thence to Park Avenue, Hot Springs, four years; thence to Sheridan one year; thence to the Orphanage as superintendent, one year; thence to College Hill, Texarkana, four months; thence he was called to some big charge in the skies, where, with his uncle, A. R. Winfield, John Wesley and Paul he ministers today as grand as any of them all.

J. L. CANNON.

REV. JOHN R. SANDERS.

John Robert Sanders was born near Arkadelphia, Arkansas, June 18, 1850, and died at the home of his son in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, December 3, 1918.

He was married to Miss Mary Ellen Bump in the city of Little Rock January 20, 1870. His wife, who is still living, is a daughter of Rev. W. H. Bump, who was one of the pioneer Methodist preachers of our state, a Conference class mate of Dr. Andrew Hunter, and one of the early pastors of the first Methodist Church organized in what is now the city of Little Rock. Six children were born to this union, one of whom died in infancy. The five living children are, W. B. and John R., Jr., of Pine Bluff; Alonzo, of Hope; Mrs. Frankie Sanders Bridges of Texarkana, and Mrs. Fannie Sanders Crandel of Carlisle, Arkansas.

While he was deeply and truly religious from his infancy, yet he never became conscious of his acceptance with God until he was some fifteen or sixteen years of age, when, kneeling as a penitent at the altar of the old First Methodist Church in Little Rock during a revival meeting conducted by the lamented Dr. Andrew Hunter, he entered into a joyous and blessed experience of salvation through faith in Jesus Christ, after which he at once united with the church and soon became a very active christian worker.

He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of his church in 1875 and for several years he was a very efficient and useful local preacher. About this time he left Little Rock and returned to Arkadelphia where he became associated with the late Capt. Adam Clark in the ownership and editorial management of the Arkadelphia Standard, one of the oldest and best known County papers in the state. If he had conferred with flesh and blood he would doubtless have spent the remainder of his days in Arkadelphia, for he had a good home, prosperous business, and was in the midst of congenial and appreciative friends. But the call of God to the work of the ministry of the gospel was ringing clear and strong through every avenue of his soul and, like one of old, he was not disobedient to the heavenly vision.

He was admitted on trial in the Little Rock Annual Conference at the session of 1881, and for thirty-seven consecutive years he continued an honored and beloved member of that body. Thirty-one years were spent in the regular pastorate, during which time he served the following charges Locksburg, Washington, Center Point, Warren, Magnolia, Fordyce, Malvert, Avenue, Hot Springs; Riverside, Pine Bluff; Hope, Mena, Fairview, Texarkana; Texarkana, Junction City, Lewisville, Macon, and Carlisle. Two years were spent as Chaplain of the State Penitentiary, and the last four years of his life in what he frequently called the hardest place he had ever filled—the place of the Superannuate.

He was pre-eminently successful and happy in the work of the pastorate. He had the shepherd's heart and the people whom he served were never slow in recognizing in him a true and tender shepherd of the flock of Christ. He seemed to be almost the incarnation of goodness, purity and love. He loved the people whom he served and was loved by them always. He loved his brethren of the Conference with a love that was whole-hearted and true and he was loved by them as few men were loved. He was incapable of narrowness, jealousy or deceit. One could not be associated with him without being often reminded of the Master's expression concerning Nathaniel. "An Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile."

His work as the Chaplain of the Penitentiary was eminently satisfactory. The unfortunate inmates of that institution were rebuked by the manifest purity of his life and comforted by the depth and tenderness of his Christ-like sympathy and compassion for sinful men. The love and respect which many of those hardened men manifested for their Chaplain was most beautiful to behold, and through his faithful preaching and holy living, many of those men were led to saving faith in the Saviour of sinners.

The four years which he spent as a superannuate were full of bodily suffering, yet he bore his afflictions with great patience and maintained that same sweet, sunny spirit which had characterized him during the years of his active ministry.

As the time for the meeting of the Annual Conference in the session of 1918 drew near he frequently expressed his earnest desire to attend and answer once more to his name at roll call, as he had not failed to do in thirty-seven years but just about the hour the roll of his conference was being called in the opening session at Hot Springs his name was called in Heaven. Can we even imagine with what joy and gladness he answered, "Here," and entered upon the higher ministeries and into the holier, sweeter fellowships of the eternal world. May we who knew and loved him cherish the memory of his beautiful and holy life, and meet him at last in our Father's house!
